Bedfordshire Centre

WINE, BEER and FLAVOURED SPIRIT COMPETITIONS RULES

ENTRY CLASS
Open to all registered Full, Joint and Family members of the Bedfordshire Centre. There are no junior entries allowed. A First, Second & Third will be selected in all classes if numbers of entries permit. The winning bottle from each class will go into the Best of Show competition for the Thompson Goblet. A First, Second and Third to be selected.

WINE

RED
- Sweet
- Dry

WHITE
- Sweet
- Dry

ROSE

KIT WINE
- Made from a standard commercial readily available Wine Kit. A new one chosen each year.

BEER
This is judged as one class.

FLAVOURED SPIRIT
This is judged as one class.

JUDGING
A judge will be selected by the committee before the event.

ENTRY DATE
Entries on the day with the appropriate fee as set by the Committee. Each bottle to be clearly marked with a number, a record of which to be given to the entrant.

GENERAL RULES

Wine
Should be in a clear bottle with a push in removable cork and clearly labelled with the wine entry class and no other details.

Beer
Should be in a dark bottle and labelled Lager, Bitter, Brown according to type, and no other details.

Flavoured Spirit
Should be in bottle with a screw top and labelled for the spirit and flavour, and no other details

NO entry should have been previously entered for this competition

All entries to the Beer, Wines and Spirits competition must be FULL bottles.